Feast of the Holy Family

GOSPEL (Luke 2:42-52) And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, according to the custom of the feast. And having fulfilled the days, when they returned, the child Jesus remained in Jerusalem. And His parents knew it not. And thinking that He was in the company, they came a day's journey and sought Him among their kinsfolks and acquaintance. And not finding Him, they returned into Jerusalem, seeking Him. And it came to pass, that, after three days, they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, hearing them and asking them questions. And all that heard Him were astonished at His wisdom and His answers. And seeing Him, they wondered. And His mother said to Him: "Son, why hast thou done so to us? Behold thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing." And He said to them: "How is it that you sought Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?"

And they understood not the word that He spoke unto them. And He went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subject to them. And His mother kept all these words in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and grace with God and men.

At this time of year when families are re-united again and as we celebrate The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, we reflect on what it is to be a family. The family is the basic unit of society and the Church. It is in the family that we first learn to communicate, and that we learn what is good and bad. It is in the family that we learn what love is because it is in the family that we first receive love. It is in the family that we first learn to forgive and to pray. It is in the family that we first learn about God and Jesus and Our Lady. It is in the family that we learn to value ourselves and to value everything else, picking up our values from what is said and unsaid by our parents. Our family forms us for many years to come. The future of humanity depends on the family because it is through a family that we all come. There are many attempts to destroy the family in our times and if the family will be destroyed in western society, the western world will crumble because all humanity comes through the family. There are many attempts today to redefine the family, but they do not reflect God's plan.

Is our family fulfilling God's plan? We desire our families to be the best possible families for our children so that they may get the best possible start in life. It is important to reflect on how our family fulfills God's plan because the family we grow up in influences us for the rest of our lives. When families reflect God's plan, they are mighty.

What is God's plan for the family? What does Jesus say about the family? In Matt 19:4-6 Jesus says, "Have you not read that the Creator from the beginning made them male and female and that he said: This is why a man leaves his father and mother and becomes attached to his wife, and the two become one flesh? They are no longer two therefore, but one flesh. So then, what God has united, human beings must not divide."

These are very clear words from Jesus on God's plan for the family. It is a man and woman who become one flesh and what God has united man must not divide.

What else has God revealed to us about his plan for the family? In the letter to the Ephesians we read that husbands are to love their wives as much as Christ loved the Church (5:25). How much did Jesus love the Church? He loved the Church so much that he died for the Church. That is how husbands are to love their wives according to the letter to the Ephesians; husbands are to love their wives as Christ loved the Church. The letter also says husbands are to love their wives as much as they love their own bodies (5:28). And then the letter goes on to say something beautiful, it says the love of husband and wife for each other is a reflection of the love of Christ for the Church (5:32). So, husbands and wives, is your love for each other a reflection of the unselfish love of Christ for the Church? That part of the Letter to the Ephesians is a beautiful description of God's plan for the family.

What else do we know about God's plan for the family? What about parents and children? Again, the same letter to the Ephesians states, "Children be obedient to your parents in the Lord - that is what uprightness demands." (6:1) Children, do you always love your parents? Sometimes we are given the impression that the fourth commandment has been rewritten and now states that parents are to obey their children. Then the letter goes on to say, "Parents, never drive your children to resentment." (6:4) So once again we find beautiful words in the Letter to the Ephesians about God's plan for the family.

If our families are to be families reflecting God's plan, then they will also be families that put God first. So, do you turn off the TV every night to pray together as a family? The letter to the Colossians (3:16) says, "Let the message of Christ in all its richness find a home with you." If faith in God is not what motivates a family, that family is starting with a disadvantage. Put Jesus in the center of your family, "Let the message of Christ in all its richness find a home with you."

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS THE PLAN OF SATAN AND HIS MINIONS

"The fight taking place between Catholicism and Freemasonry is a fight to the very death, ceaseless and merciless." (Bulletin of the Grand Orient Lodge, 1892, p. 183)

The hatred that has always lurked underneath the skin of society for Catholicism is manifested by various documents that have been unearthed over the years.

First of these documents to be considered is the "Permanent Instruction of the Alta Vendita." The Alta Vendita was the highest lodge of the "Carbonari." which was an Italian secret society. It makes sense that a secret society in Italy would be chosen to destroy the Church, as geographically it is most proximate. The Permanent Instruction was intended to be a secret document with the nefarious intent to infiltrate and corrupt the Church all the way up to the Papacy, and to alter the Faith with Masonic principles, which is Modernism and liberalism, wrapped up in the religion of man --- with all religions understood as being more or less equal and pleasing to God.

One important excerpt from the Alta Vendita reads as follows:

"Our ultimate end is that of Voltaire and the French Revolution - the final destruction of Catholicism, and even the Christian idea...The task we are to undertake...may take years...perhaps a century....Now, then, to assure ourselves a Pope of the required dimensions, it is a question of first shaping for this Pope a generation worthy of the reign we are dreaming of...In a hundred years time...bishops and priests will think they are marching behind the banner of the keys of Peter when in fact they will be following our flag...the reforms will have to be brought about in the name of obedience"

"The goal is no longer the destruction of the Church, but rather to make use of it by infiltrating it."
(‘Ecumenism’ Freemason book, 1908, as found in Bishop Graber, St. Athanasius, pp. 54-65)

"A day will come when the pope, [inspired by the holy spirit] will declare that all the excommunications are lifted and all the anathemas are retracted, when all the Christians will be united within the Church, when the Jews and Moslems will be blessed and called back to her...she will permit all sects to approach her by degrees and will embrace all mankind in the communion of her love and prayers. Then, Protestants will no longer exist. Against what will they have to protest? The sovereign pontiff will then be truly kind of the religious world, and he will do whatever he wishes with all the nations of the earth." (Eliph Levi, notorious Freemason in 1862, quoted from "The Destruction of the Christian Tradition," by Dr. Rama Coomaraswamy)

In our times, the times of Vatican II, this apostasy has been almost universally accepted.

Next week we shall continue to expose the plan of Satan and his minion
