Second Sunday in Lent

GOSPEL Matt. 17:1-9 At that time, Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves, and was transfigured before them. And His face shone as the sun: and His garments became white as snow. And behold there appeared to them Moses and Elias talking with Him. Then Peter addressed Jesus, saying, "Lord, it is good for us to be here: if You will, let us make here three tabernacles, one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

And as He was yet speaking, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them. And lo a voice out of the cloud, saying: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear Him." And the disciples hearing fell upon their faces and were very much afraid. And Jesus came and touched them: and said to them: "Arise, and fear not." And lifting up their eyes, saw no one, but only Jesus.

And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus cautioned them, saying: "Tell the vision to no man, till the Son of Man has risen from the dead."

St. Joseph - Everything we know about the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus comes from Scripture. We know he was a carpenter, a working man, for the Nazarenes ask about Jesus, "Is this not the carpenter's son?" (Matthew 13:55). He wasn't rich, for when he took Jesus to the Temple to be circumcised and Mary to be purified he offered the sacrifice of two turtledoves or a pair of pigeons, allowed only for those who could not afford a lamb (Luke 2:24).

Despite his humble work and means, Joseph came from a royal lineage as a descendent of David, the greatest king of Israel (Matthew 1:1-16 and Luke 3:23-38). Indeed, the angel who first tells Joseph about Jesus greets him as "son of David," a royal title used also for Jesus.

We know Joseph was a compassionate, caring man. When he discovered Mary was pregnant after they had been betrothed, he knew the child was not his but was as yet unaware that she was carrying the Son of God. He knew women accused of adultery could be stoned to death, so he resolved to send her away quietly to not expose her to shame or cruelty. However, when an angel came to Joseph in a dream and told him, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Ghost. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins," he did as the angel told him and took Mary as his wife. (Matthew 1:19-25).

Since Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Joseph probably had died before Jesus entered public ministry.

According to the Catholic Encyclopedia, the Apocryphal Date for Joseph's birth is 90 BC in Bethlehem and the Apocryphal Date of his death is July 20, AD 18 in Nazareth.

Joseph is the patron saint of the dying because, assuming he died before Jesus' public life, he died with Jesus and Mary close to him, the way we all would like to leave this earth.

Joseph is also patron saint of the Universal Church, families, fathers, expectant mothers, travelers, immigrants, house sellers and buyers, craftsmen, engineers, and working people in general.

We celebrate two feast days for Joseph: March 19 for Joseph the Husband of Mary and May 1 for Joseph the Worker. March 19 has been the most commonly celebrated feast day, and it wasn't until 1955 that Pope Pius XII established the Feast of "St. Joseph the Worker" to be celebrated on May 1. This is also May Day (International Workers' Day) and believed to reflect Joseph's status as the patron of workers.

Many places and churches all over the world are named after St. Joseph, including the Spanish form, San Jose, which is the most commonly named place in the world. Joseph is considered by many to also be the patron saint of the New World. In art, Joseph is typically portrayed as an older man, with grey hair and a beard, often balding, sometimes appearing frail and a marginal figure next to Mary and Jesus, if not entirely in the background. Some statues of Joseph show his staff topped with flowers. St. Joseph is shown with the attributes of a carpenter's square or tools, the infant Jesus, his lily blossomed staff, two turtle doves, or a spikenard.

There is much we still wish we could know about Joseph -- exactly where and when he was born, how he spent his days, exactly when and how he died. But Scripture has left us with the most important knowledge of who he was -- "a righteous man" (Matthew 1:18).

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

THE PASSION OF THE CHURCH II

In his magnificent Encyclical on The Mystical Body of Christ, Pope Pius XII taught the Universal Church:

It is the will of Jesus Christ that the whole body of the Church, no less than the individual members, should resemble Him. And we see this realized when, in following in the footsteps of her Founder, the Church teaches, governs, and offers the divine Sacrifice. When she embraces the evangelical counsels she reflects the Redeemer's poverty, obedience, and virginal purity. Adorned with institutes of many different kinds and with so many precious jewels, she represents Christ deep in prayer on the mountain, or preaching to the people, or healing the sick and wounded and bringing sinners back to the path of virtue -- in a word, doing good to all. WHAT WONDERS THEN, IF, WHILE ON EARTH SHE, LIKE CHRIST SUFFER PERSECUTIONS INSULTS AND SORROWS.

In the Gospel of St. John our Lord tells us:

“Remember My word that I said to you: the servant is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted Me they will persecute you also.” [Jn. 15:20]

This idea is contained in a message of the Blessed Virgin Mary to St. Bernadette when the Mother of God declares:

“I cannot promise you happiness in this life; only in the next.”

I remember Protestant preachers on television and radio who preached the “gospel of comfort,” that is a faith which gives psychological ease to those who are already saved, with few unpleasant consequences. The Novus Ordo, of course, has its own version of this, and many follow the easy way. But as Mary only promised to Bernadette happiness in Heaven, the implication is that for those who truly love God here on earth, there will be a price to be paid. More than anything in our times, more than the “hot topics” of pro-life issues and issues concerning sexuality, the real issue is Truth and the Love of Truth as St. Paul says in this very important passage of Sacred Scripture:

Let no man deceive you by any means, for unless there come a revolt [apostasy in Greek] first, and the man of sin [Antichrist] revealed....whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power, and signs, and lying wonders, and in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish; BECAUSE THEY HAVE NOT THE LOVE OF THE TRUTH THAT THEY MIGHT BE SAVED. Therefore God shall send them the OPERATION OF ERROR, to believe lying; that all may be judged who have not believed the truth, but have consented to iniquity.
[2 Thessalonians 2 ff]

St. Paul also refers to “the Mystery of Iniquity,” the reality of which we will discuss next week.

DRESS POLICY

When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
