Sunday After The Ascension

GOSPEL John 15:26-27; 16:1-4 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "When the Paraclete has come, Whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth Who proceeds from the Father, He shall give testimony of Me. And you shall give testimony, because you are with Me from the beginning." These things have I spoken to you that you may not be scandalized. They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the hour is coming, that whosoever kills you will think that he is offering worship to God. And these things will they do to you; because they have not known the Father nor Me. But these things I have told you, that when the hour shall come, you may remember that I told you of them."

June is the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus: Today, the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart is celebrated throughout the world on the Friday following the Feast of Corpus Christi. Devotion to the wounded heart of Jesus has its origins in the eleventh century, when pious Christians meditated on the Five Wounds of Christ. There grew up among the faithful prayers to the Sacred Heart, prayers to the Shoulder Wound of Christ—private devotions which helped Christians to focus on the passion and death of Christ, and thus to grow in love for our Savior who had suffered and died for us.

A pious sister by the name of Margaret Mary Alacoque began to report visions of Jesus. He appeared to her frequently, and in December 1673, he permitted Margaret Mary—as He had once allowed St. Gertrude—to rest her head upon his Heart. As she experienced the comfort of his presence, Jesus told her of his great love and explained that he had chosen her to make his love and his goodness known to all.

The following year, in June or July of 1674, Margaret Mary reported that Jesus wanted to be honored under the figure of His Heart of flesh. He asked the faithful to receive Him in the Eucharist frequently, especially on the First Friday of the month, and to observe a Holy Hour of devotion to Him.

And then in 1675, during the octave of Corpus Christi, Margaret Mary received the vision which came to be known as the “great apparition.” Jesus asked that the modern Feast of the Sacred Heart be celebrated each year on the Friday following Corpus Christi, in reparation for the ingratitude of men for the sacrifice which Christ had made for them.

On May 8, 1873, the devotion to the Sacred Heart was formally approved by Pope Pius IX; and 26 years later – on July 21, 1899 – Pope Leo XIII urgently recommended that all bishops throughout the world observe the feast in their dioceses.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

COGNITIVE DISSONANCE AND THE RECOGNIZE-AND-RESIST CROWD

“Cognitive dissonance” can be defined as: “the mental discomfort (psychological distress) experienced by a person who holds two or more contradictory beliefs, ideas, or values.” (Wikipedia)

As I have written before, there are three main groups who claim to bear the name “Traditionalist.” The first group consists of the “indult people” who stay in the Novus Ordo church and simply want their “Latin Mass.” The primary outlet for this crowd is the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter. Francis is their pope, and they believe, ostensibly, that the New Order church is the true Church of Jesus Christ. Then there is the second group, “Recognize & Resist” faction—they have “one foot in, and one foot out” of the New church, if you will. The Society of St. Pius X is the main vehicle for this group and remains the largest contingent of so-called Traditionalists presently. Then of course there are the much maligned third group, Sedevacantists, who understand that to accept Vatican II is to surrender to a defected, false Church. They realize that on basic, substantial issues, such as the nature of Church itself — Vatican II teaches heresy, and therefore the church it created cannot be the Catholic Church.

Recognize & Resist seems to have an infinite number of bloggers on the internet. R&R has become the big theological train that most “conservative” and traditionally minded Catholics have climbed aboard. This is because, in a way, it is the most “comfortable” ride of the three, but a great price has come with it. In order to prop up Francis as pope and accept the Novus Ordo church as the same entity it was before Vatican II, one must ignore, corrupt, dismiss and even malign pre-Conciliar teaching on these issues. Therefore, some of the more honest people in this group because of the cognitive dissonance this approach engenders, have become Sedevacantists. One such blogger is Jonathan Byrd who recently posted on the blog “Traditional Catholic Priest,” an essay entitled, “ENDING COGNITIVE DISSONANCE.” I encourage you to find this post and read it in its entirety. Mr. Byrd is a layman “with a wife, 10 kids, 4 cats and a dog,” as his profile indicates. He writes in relation to the R&R bloggers:

WE HAVE DONE HARM TO THE FAITH... WE DID THE VERY THINGS THAT MODERNISTS HAVE DONE — NAMELY WE HAVE TWISTED WORDS TO SUIT NEW MEANINGS. IN FACT, WE HAVE LOST WHAT IT MEANS TO BE CATHOLIC BY EXPLAINING AWAY THE FAITH TO JUSTIFY HOW PEOPLE LIKE FRANCIS CAN ALL CALL THEMSELVES CATHOLIC [AND HOW HE COULD BE THE POPE] Mr. Byrd then says: “Think about this for a moment.”

The R&R position he says, “Is extremely illogical and extremely not Catholic.” And: “The person that is the Pope must first be Catholic and if he isn’t Catholic then he isn’t the pope. 1+1=2...it isn’t that hard to understand.” The conclusion is very simple:

If you accept Francis is the pope then you must accept communion for adulterers, you must accept allowing communion for protestants, you must accept LGBT novelties, you must accept the novus ordo mass, the new rites, the “cult of man”... etc. If the above is abhorrent to you...If you would rather die a thousand deaths than to give your consent to such abominable practices...Then welcome to Sedevacantism.

Personally, I offer congratulations to Mr. Byrd, who has taken this truly enlightened and courageous step. And rather than some who remain “crypto-sedevacantists” he has told the world about his conversion to the truth and will be rewarded by the Lord Jesus Christ for his witness.

DRESS POLICY

When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
