FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY

GOSPEL Luke 1:26-38 At that time, the angel Gabriel was sent from God into a city of Galilee, called Nazareth, To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David: and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel being come in, said unto her: "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women." Who having heard, was troubled at his saying and thought with herself what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said to her: "Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God. Behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and shalt bring forth a Son: and thou shalt call His name Jesus. He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of David his father: and He shall reign in the house of Jacob forever. And of His kingdom there shall be no end." And Mary said to the angel: "How shall this be done, because I know not man?" And the angel answering, said to her: "The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee. And therefore also the Holy which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And behold thy cousin Elizabeth, she also hath conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her that is called barren. Because no word shall be impossible with God." And Mary said: "Behold the handmaid of the Lord: be it done to me according to thy word."

The Feast of the Most Holy Rosary, is a feast day of the Roman Catholic Church, celebrated on 7 October, the anniversary of the decisive victory of the combined fleet of the Holy League of 1571 over the Ottoman navy at the Battle of Lepanto.

In 1571, Pope St. Pius V organized a coalition of forces from Spain and smaller Christian kingdoms, republics and military orders, to rescue Christian outposts in Cyprus, particularly the Venetian outpost at Famagusta which, however, surrendered after a long siege on August 1 before the Christian forces set sail. On October 7, 1571, the Holy League, a coalition of southern European Catholic maritime states, sailed from Messina, Sicily, and met a powerful Ottoman fleet in the Battle of Lepanto. Knowing that the Christian forces were at a distinct materiel disadvantage, the holy pontiff, Pope Pius V, called for all of Europe to pray the Rosary for victory, and led a rosary procession in Rome.

Pius V instituted "Our Lady of Victory" as an annual feast to commemorate the victory at Lepanto, which he attributed to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

In 1573, Pope Gregory XIII changed the title of the "Feast of Our Lady of Victory" to "Feast of the Holy Rosary", to be celebrated on the first Sunday of October. Dominican friar Juan Lopez in his 1584 book on the rosary states that the feast of the rosary was offered "in memory and in perpetual gratitude of the miraculous victory that the Lord gave to his Christian people that day against the Turkish armada".

In 1671 the observance of this festival was extended by Clement X to the whole of Spain, and somewhat later Clement XI, after the victory over the Turks gained by Prince Eugene in the Battle of Petrovaradin on 5 August 1716 (the feast of Our Lady of the Snows), commanded the feast of the Rosary to be celebrated by the universal Church.

Leo XIII raised the feast to the rank of a double of the second class and added to the Litany of Loreto the invocation "Queen of the Most Holy Rosary". On this feast, in every church in which the Rosary confraternity has been duly erected, a plenary indulgence toties quoties is granted upon certain conditions to all who visit therein the Rosary chapel or statue of Our Lady. This has been called the "Portiuncula" of the Rosary.

Pius X in 1913 changed the date to 7 October, as part of his effort to restore celebration of the liturgy of the Sundays.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS
"BLOVIATE:" TO TALK AT LENGTH WITHOUT SAYING ANYTHING

In my Novus Ordo days, it was not uncommon to endure preachers and teachers speaking endlessly without saying anything. Literally. It certainly seemed like the English language was being spoken, but beyond that, if you really listened, it was nothing but gibberish. I'm convinced that seminaries and schools of theology required at least one course in "How to Bloviate," and many of the denizens of these institutions got an "A+" in said discipline.

This was done, I'm sure, so that the victims who sat and listened to this nonsense would hear whatever they wanted to hear. It's kind of like looking at a Picasso painting, or some other horrendous rendering of "modern art," the whole purpose is subjective: to enable the viewer to see "whatever they wanted to see," with little or no reference to objective reality.

This is human nature, especially in these very confused times following the disaster that was Vatican II. Bloviate, and hope that conservatives hear conservative stuff, and liberals hear liberal stuff, so as to make everybody happy --- make people feel "warm and fuzzy" as a friend of mine is wont to say. Many people, priests and laymen alike, have mastered this pseudo-art very well!

On occasion, people even in the Traditional Church will say: "Just preach on the Gospel, Father --- don't be controversial. All I want to hear is pious platitudes to help me save my soul, leave that other stuff about the Pope and the Church out of it."

This was the great "liberal trick" in liberal, Modernist seminaries --- it was to get the preacher to focus totally on the Gospel passage of the day, leaving out anything having to do with the teaching of the Ordinary Magisterium of the Church, those nasty old pre-Vatican II popes, the situation in the Church, Hell or Judgment, etc. Just read some article by one of the liberal darlings approved of by the theological Establishment, bloviate on it and you'll do a wonderful job --- everyone will hear what they want to hear, go home happy, and the money will continue to come in!

On the contrary, St. Paul in his letter to young Timothy commands him to preach this way:

"I charge thee, before God and Jesus Christ, who shall judge the living and the dead, by his coming, and his kingdom: Preach the word: be instant in season, out of season, reprove, entreat, rebuke in all patience and doctrine.....Be sober."

If all a priest does is preach pablum "on the Gospel;" if he never addresses the issue of the pope, or where in fact the Church is today, if he never reprovcs, entreats or rebukes, he is not doing his job. He will not be prepared to face his Particular Judgment before Jesus Christ, who's priest he is, and all of his bloviating, even if on the Gospel, will not avail him unto eternal life.

MEMORIAL PAGE -To include your loved ones' names or family name on the memorial page over the coming year, please print the names clearly on the envelope designated "Memorial Page". Envelopes may be found in the rear of the church. The donation is $50 and checks should be made payable to Holy Family Chapel. Please place the donation in the provided envelopes and deposit the envelopes in the collection basket. Beginning in the month of November, the names will be published on the memorial page in the weekly, parish bulletin. In 2019, there will be a Solemn Requiem Mass for the repose of the souls of all those listed.

"Purgatory exists, and the souls detained therein are helped by the suffrages of the faithful, but especially by the acceptable sacrifice of the altar." Council of Trent

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
