NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

GOSPEL Matt. 22:1-14

At that time, Jesus spoke to the chief priests and the Pharisees in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who made a marriage for his son; and he sent his servants, to call them that were invited to the marriage, and they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying: Tell them that were invited: Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come ye to the marriage. But they neglected; and went their way, one to his farm, and another to his merchandise; and the rest laid hands on his servants, and having treated them contumeliously, put them to death. But when the king had heard of it, he was angry; and sending his armies, he destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he saith to his servants: The marriage indeed is ready, but they that were invited were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as you shall find, call to the marriage. And his servants going forth into the ways, gathered together all that they found, both bad and good; and the marriage was filled with guests. And the king went in to see the guests, and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment: and he saith to him: Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having on a wedding garment? but he was silent. Then the king said to the waiters: Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen."

Complete Prayer to Saint Michael

Feast of St. Michael September 29th - The following is the longer version of the vital prayer composed by Pope Leo XIII in 1888 after his startling vision as to the future of the Church. This prayer was dedicated for the Feast of St. Michael 1448 years from the date of the election of the first Leo - Pope Saint Leo the Great. Everyone is familiar with the first prayer below which was mandated by His Holiness as part of the Leonine Prayers after Low Mass. After Vatican II, in league with the devil, Giovanni Montini outlawed this necessary prayer and then one wonders how "the smoke of satan" got into the sanctuary? The Conciliarists wanted to make sure the words in bold below would never see the light of day again for in it Leo foretold what would happen: The shepherd would be struck, the sheep scattered. Below are both the short and longer versions of this poignant prayer, which should never be forgotten.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

O glorious Archangel Saint Michael, Prince of the heavenly host, be our defense in the terrible warfare which we carry on against principalities and powers, against the rulers of this world of darkness, spirits of evil. Come to the aid of man, whom God created immortal, made in His own image and likeness, and redeemed at a great price from the tyranny of the devil. Fight this day the battle of our Lord, together with the holy angels, as already thou hast fought the leader of the proud angels, Lucifer, and his apostate host, who were powerless to resist thee, nor was there place for them any longer in Heaven. That cruel, that ancient serpent, who is called the devil or Satan who seduces the whole world, was cast into the abyss with his angels. Behold this primeval enemy and slayer of men has taken courage. Transformed into an angel of light, he wanders about with all the multitude of wicked spirits, invading the earth in order to blot out the Name of God and of His Christ, to seize upon, slay, and cast into eternal perdition, souls destined for the crown of eternal glory. That wicked dragon pours out, as a most impure flood, the venom of his malice on men of depraved mind and corrupt heart, the spirit of lying, of impiety, of blasphemy, and the pestilent breath of impurity, and of every vice and iniquity. These most crafty enemies have filled and inebriated with gall and bitterness the Church, the spouse of the Immaculate Lamb, and have laid impious hands on Her most sacred possessions. In the Holy Place itself, where has been set up the See of the most holy Peter and the Chair of Truth for the light of the world, they have raised the throne of their abominable impiety with the iniquitous design that when the Pastor has been struck the sheep may be scattered. Arise then, O invincible Prince, bring help against the attacks of the lost spirits to the people of God, and give them the victory. They venerate thee as their protector and patron; in thee holy Church glories as her defense against the malicious powers of hell; to thee has God entrusted the souls of men to be established in heavenly beatitude. Oh, pray to the God of peace that He may put Satan under our feet, so far conquered that he may no longer be able to hold men in captivity and harm the Church. Offer our prayers in the sight of the Most High, so that they may quickly conciliate the mercies of the Lord; and beating down the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan, do thou again make him captive in the abyss, that he may no longer seduce the nations. Amen.

V: Behold the Cross of the Lord; be scattered ye hostile powers.

R: The Lion of the Tribe of Juda has conquered the root of David.

V: Let Thy mercies be upon us, O Lord.

R: As we have hoped in Thee.

V: O Lord hear my prayer.

R: And let my cry come unto Thee.

V: Let us pray. O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we call upon Thy holy Name, and as suppliants, we implore Thy clemency, that by the intercession of Mary, ever Virgin, immaculate and our Mother, and of the glorious Archangel Saint Michael, Thou wouldst deign to help us against Satan and all other unclean spirits, who wander about the world for the injury of the human race and the ruin of our souls. Amen.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

In the past century there has been found a strong tendency in theology to "deify" man; an element that is known in occult circles, but one that Christianity, especially Catholicism, has fought strongly against over the course of the ages. This is predominately associated with the "Modernist" apostasy that Pope Pius X attempted to lie to rest at the turn of the 20th century.

With John Paul II, this tendency, lurking like a cancer beneath the skin of the Church, took on at least semi-official approval.

Pope Pius X, on October 4, 1903, teaching as the Supreme Pontiff wrote in E. Supremi Apostolatus:

"While on the other hand, and according to the same apostle is the distinguishing mark of Antichrist, man had with infinite temerity put himself in the place of God."

John Paul II however, states in Redemptor Hominis (#10), March 4, 1979: "In reality, the name for that deep amazement at man's worth and dignity is the Gospel, that is to say: The Good News. It is also called Christianity.

MAN IS THE GOSPEL ---- THE GOSPEL IS MAN.

John Paul, it can be demonstrated is rehashing the old Nestorian Heresy. Nestorius held that the Son of God united Himself "in a certain way" with a man named Jesus. This is heretical as the orthodox definition is that The Son of God BECAME man in the Incarnation not simply uniting Himself with a man. The attack here is on the person of Christ which St. John says is characteristic of Antichrist:

"Who is a liar, but he who denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, who denieth the Father and the Son. (1:John 2:22)

"Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God. And every spirit that dissolveth Jesus is not of God, and this is Antichrist, of whom you have heard he cometh." (1John 4:2-3)

This is important to know because these passages indicate who Our Jesus Christ IS. Alongside the Trinity, there are no more important truths, anywhere.

From John Paul II and his writings:

"....by his Incarnation, he the Son of God, has in a certain way united himself with each man." Redemptor Hominis #13, March 4, 1979.

".....the Son of God Incarnate in the womb of the Virgin Mary, has in a certain way united himself with each man." Homily July 2, 1986

Carol Wojtyla, alias JP II, took lessons not only from Nestorius, but possibly from Antichrist himself.
